

STRATAGEMS

Stratagems can be used by spending Command Points, to create epic moments of tactical brilliance or peerless martial might. They are used when a player deems that a critical point in the battle is reached, where extra combat prowess or fleeting but powerful effects are required to tip the balance in their favour.

USING STRATAGEMS ^{15.01}

During the battle, both players can use stratagems. Each stratagem states:

- How many CP it costs to use.
- WHEN: When it can be used.
- TARGET: Which units it can target.
- EFFECT: What the effects of using that stratagem are.
- RESTRICTIONS: Any additional restrictions that apply.

Each player can use the same stratagem multiple times during the battle, but the following restrictions apply:

- Each player cannot use the same stratagem more than once in the same phase.
- Unless otherwise stated, each player cannot target the same unit with more than one stratagem in the same phase.

Each time you use a stratagem, resolve the following sequence:

1. Select targets as described in that stratagem.
2. Reduce your CP total by the CP cost listed in that stratagem.
If that stratagem contains a section that carries an additional CP cost (e.g. +1CP), you can only use that additional section if you increase the CP cost of that stratagem by the amount shown. If you do not have enough CP remaining, you cannot use that stratagem.
3. Resolve the effects of that stratagem.

CORE STRATAGEMS

All players can use core stratagems (see overleaf). Additional stratagems can be found in Codexes and other publications.
